

The Human Rights Guide to the Sustainable Development Goals

Linking human rights with all Sustainable Development Goals and targets

Click on goal, target or instrument to expand details.

Use switch to change which column to be first.

Show first:

Targets

instruments

and sustainable entity services for all in developing countries, in particular developed countries, services for all in developing countries (in water developed countries, services for all in developing countries). Ensure access to affordable, reliable, services, in accordance with their especies programmes of deport. Figure access to affordable, reliable, services, in accordance with their especies programmes of deport. Figure access to affordable, reliable, services, reliable, services, and the reliable access to affordable, reliable, services, reliable, services, reliable, services, and the reliable access to affordable, reliable, services, reliable, services, reliable, services, reliable, services, reliable, reliable, services, reliable, r	Goal	Target	Instrument	Article / Description
Committee and process to entire the control of the committee and upprofess teaching on producing food and of the graphy including adoptate for the graphy including food and of the graphy including and graphy including and graphy including and graphy including and graphy including food and graphy including food and graphy including and graphy including and graphy including and graphy including and graphy in the graphy including and graphy in t
CEDW Covertion on the Elimination of Al Forms of Racial Discrimination of the Rights of Persone with Disabilities CRP Coverention on t	Ensure access to affordable, reliable, sustainable and	By 2030, expand infrastructure and upgrade technology for supplying modern and sustainable energy services for all in developing countries, in particular least developed countries, small island developing States and landlocked developing countries, in accordance with their respective programmes of support. Indicators 7.b.1 Installed renewable energy-generating capacity in developing countries (in watts per capita)		25.1 Everyone has the right to a standard of living adequate for the health and well-being of himself and of his family, including food, clothing, housing and medical care and necessary social services, and the right to security in the event of unemployment,
International Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Racial Discrimination and discrimination in all forms and to against the fundamental obligations laid down in article 2 of this Convention, States Parties undertake to prohibit or national or ethnic origin, to equality before the law, notably in the enjoyment of the following rights: Seconomic, social and cultural rights, in particular: Show all articles States Parties shall take all appropriate measures to eliminate discrimination against women in other areas of economic and social life in order to ensure, on a basis of equality of men and women, the same rights, in particular: 14.2 States Parties shall take all appropriate measures to eliminate discrimination against women in order areas of economic and social life in order to ensure, on a basis of equality of men and women, the same rights, in particular: 14.2 States Parties shall take all appropriate measures to eliminate discrimination against women in order areas of economic and social life in order to ensure, on a basis of equality of men and women, the same rights, in particular: 14.2 States Parties shall take all appropriate measures to eliminate discrimination against women in order areas of economic and social life in order to ensure, on a basis of equality of men and women, the same rights, in particular; shall ensure to such women the right. 14.2 States Parties shall take all appropriate measures to eliminate discrimination against women in order areas of economic and social life in order to ensure, on a basis of equality of men and women, the same rights, in particular, shall ensure to such women the right. 14.2 States Parties ensure the right of persons with disabilities to an adequate standard of living for themselves and their families in the parties of the			International Covenant on Economic, Social	11.1 The States Parties to the present Covenant recognize the right of everyone to an adequate standard of living for himself and his family, including adequate food, clothing and housing, and to the continuous improvement of living conditions. The States Parties will take appropriate steps to ensure the realization of this right, recognizing to this effect the essential importance of international
Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination Against Women States Parties shall take all appropriate measures to eliminate discrimination against women in other areas of economic and social life in order to ensure, on a basis of equality of men and women, the same rights, in particular: 14.2 States Parties shall take all appropriate measures to eliminate discrimination against women in rural areas in order to ensure, on a basis of equality of men and women, that they participate in and benefit from rural development and, in particular, shall ensure to such women the right: 14.2.1 To enjoy adequate tiving conditions, particularly in relation to housing, sanitation, electricity and water supply, transport and communications. Show all articles 28.1 States Parties recognize the right of persons with disabilities to an adequate standard of living for themselves and their families including adequate food, clothing and housing, and to the continuous improvement of living conditions, and shall take appropriate steps to sefeguard and promote the realization of this right without discrimination on the basis of disabilities to the purpose and objectives of the present Convention, and will entertain the particular or and among States and among States and as appropriate, in particularly with relevant international and regional organizations and among States and as and gardinates. Such measures could include, linter alia: 21.1 Ensuring that international cooperation, including international development programmes, is inclusive of and accessible to perswith disabilities. 32.1.5 Ensuring that international cooperation, including through the exchange and sharing of information, experiences, training programmes and best practices;			International Convention on the Elimination	5 In compliance with the fundamental obligations laid down in article 2 of this Convention, States Parties undertake to prohibit and to eliminate racial discrimination in all its forms and to guarantee the right of everyone, without distinction as to race, colour, or national or ethnic origin, to equality before the law, notably in the enjoyment of the following rights: 5.e
ensure, on a basis of equality of men and women, that they participate in and benefit from rural development and, in particular, shall ensure to such women the right: 14.2.h To enjoy adequate living conditions, particularly in relation to housing, sanitation, electricity and water supply, transport and communications. Show all articles 28.1 Show all articles 28.1 States Parties recognize the right of persons with disabilities to an adequate standard of living for themselves and their families including adequate food, clothing and housing, and to the continuous improvement of living conditions, and shall take appropriate sto as seleguard and promote the realization of this right without discrimination on the basis of disability. 32.1 States Parties recognize the importance of international cooperation and its promotion, in support of national efforts for the realization of the purpose and objectives of the present Convention, and will undertake appropriate and effective measures in the regard, between and among States and, as appropriate, in partnership with relevant international and regional organizations and civil society, in particular organizations of persons with disabilities. Such measures could include, inter alia: 32.1.a Ensuring that international cooperation, including international development programmes, is inclusive of and accessible to pers with disabilities; 32.1.b Facilitating and supporting capacity-building, including through the exchange and sharing of information, experiences, training programmes and best practices;			Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of	13 States Parties shall take all appropriate measures to eliminate discrimination against women in other areas of economic and
Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities 28.1 States Parties recognize the right of persons with disabilities to an adequate standard of living for themselves and their families including adequate food, clothing and housing, and to the continuous improvement of living conditions, and shall take appropria steps to safeguard and promote the realization of this right without discrimination on the basis of disability. 32.1 States Parties recognize the importance of international cooperation and its promotion, in support of national efforts for the realization of the purpose and objectives of the present Convention, and will undertake appropriate and effective measures in the regard, between and among States and, as appropriate, in partnership with relevant international and regional organizations of vivil society, in partnership with relevant international and regional organizations and civil society, in partnership with relevant international and regional organizations and civil society, in partnership with relevant international and regional organizations and civil society, in partnership with relevant international and regional organizations and civil society, in partnership with relevant international and regional organizations and civil society, in partnership with relevant international and regional organizations and civil society, in partnership with relevant international and regional organizations and civil society, in partnership with relevant international and regional organizations and civil society. In partnership with relevant international and regional organizations and civil society. In partnership with relevant international and regional organizations and regional organizations of the purpose and objectives of the present Convention, and will undertake appropriate and effective measures in the regional organizations of the purpose and objectives of the purpose and				ensure, on a basis of equality of men and women, that they participate in and benefit from rural development and, in particular, shall ensure to such women the right: 14.2.h To enjoy adequate living conditions, particularly in relation to housing, sanitation, electricity and water supply, transport and realization of the purpose and objectives of the present Convention, and will undertake appropriate and effective measures in the regard, between and among States and, as appropriate, in partnership with relevant international and regional organizations and civil society, in particular organizations of persons with disabilities. Such measures could include, inter alia: 32.1.a Ensuring that international cooperation, including international development programmes, is inclusive of and accessible to persons with disabilities; 32.1.b Facilitating and supporting capacity-building, including through the exchange and sharing of information, experiences, training programmes and best practices;			Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities	28.1 States Parties recognize the right of persons with disabilities to an adequate standard of living for themselves and their families, including adequate food, clothing and housing, and to the continuous improvement of living conditions, and shall take appropriate
Facilitating and supporting capacity-building, including through the exchange and sharing of information, experiences, training programmes and best practices;				32.1.a Ensuring that international cooperation, including international development programmes, is inclusive of and accessible to persons
				Facilitating and supporting capacity-building, including through the exchange and sharing of information, experiences, training
32.1.c Facilitating cooperation in research and access to scientific and technical knowledge;				32.1.c Facilitating cooperation in research and access to scientific and technical knowledge;

	32.1.d Providing, as appropriate, technical and economic assistance, including by facilitating access to and sharing of accessible and assistive technologies, and through the transfer of technologies.
UNDRIP United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples	Show all articles 21.1 Indigenous peoples have the right, without discrimination, to the improvement of their economic and social conditions, including, inter alia, in the areas of education, employment, vocational training and retraining, housing, sanitation, health and social security.
	32.2 States shall consult and cooperate in good faith with the indigenous peoples concerned through their own representative institutions in order to obtain their free and informed consent prior to the approval of any project affecting their lands or territories and other resources, particularly in connection with the development, utilization or exploitation of mineral, water or other resources.
ACHPR African Charter on Human and Peoples' Rights	Show all articles 24 All peoples shall have the right to a general satisfactory environment favourable to their development.

The Human Rights Guide to the SDGs is made by Institute for Human Rights in Denmark. The guide is provided as a free service under Creative Commons. Please report errors or missing elements to info@humanrights.dk.